

WHO LIVES IN THE EVERGLADES?

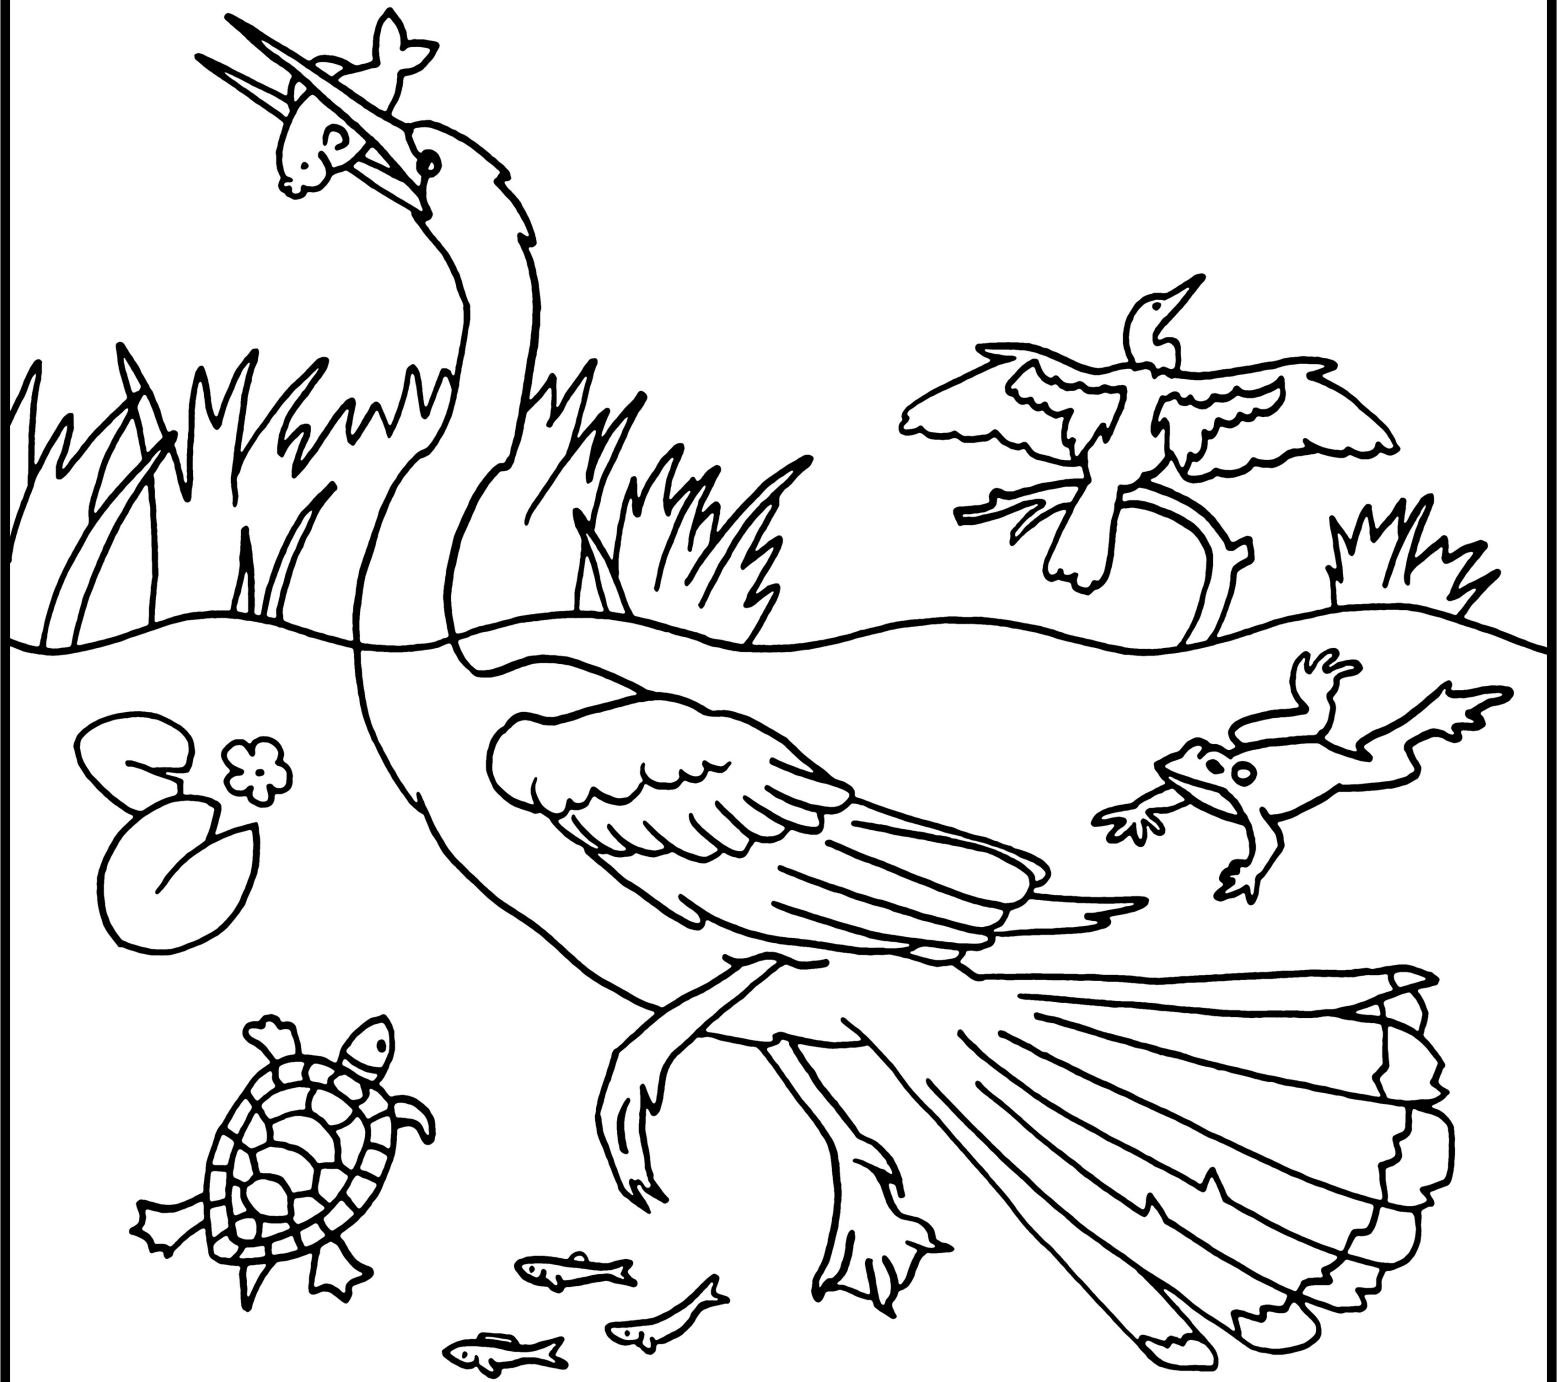

ALLIGATOR

I am an alligator. I have a long, rounded snout shaped like the letter U and sharp teeth. I have a powerful tail for swimming. My color is black.

I can be found living in

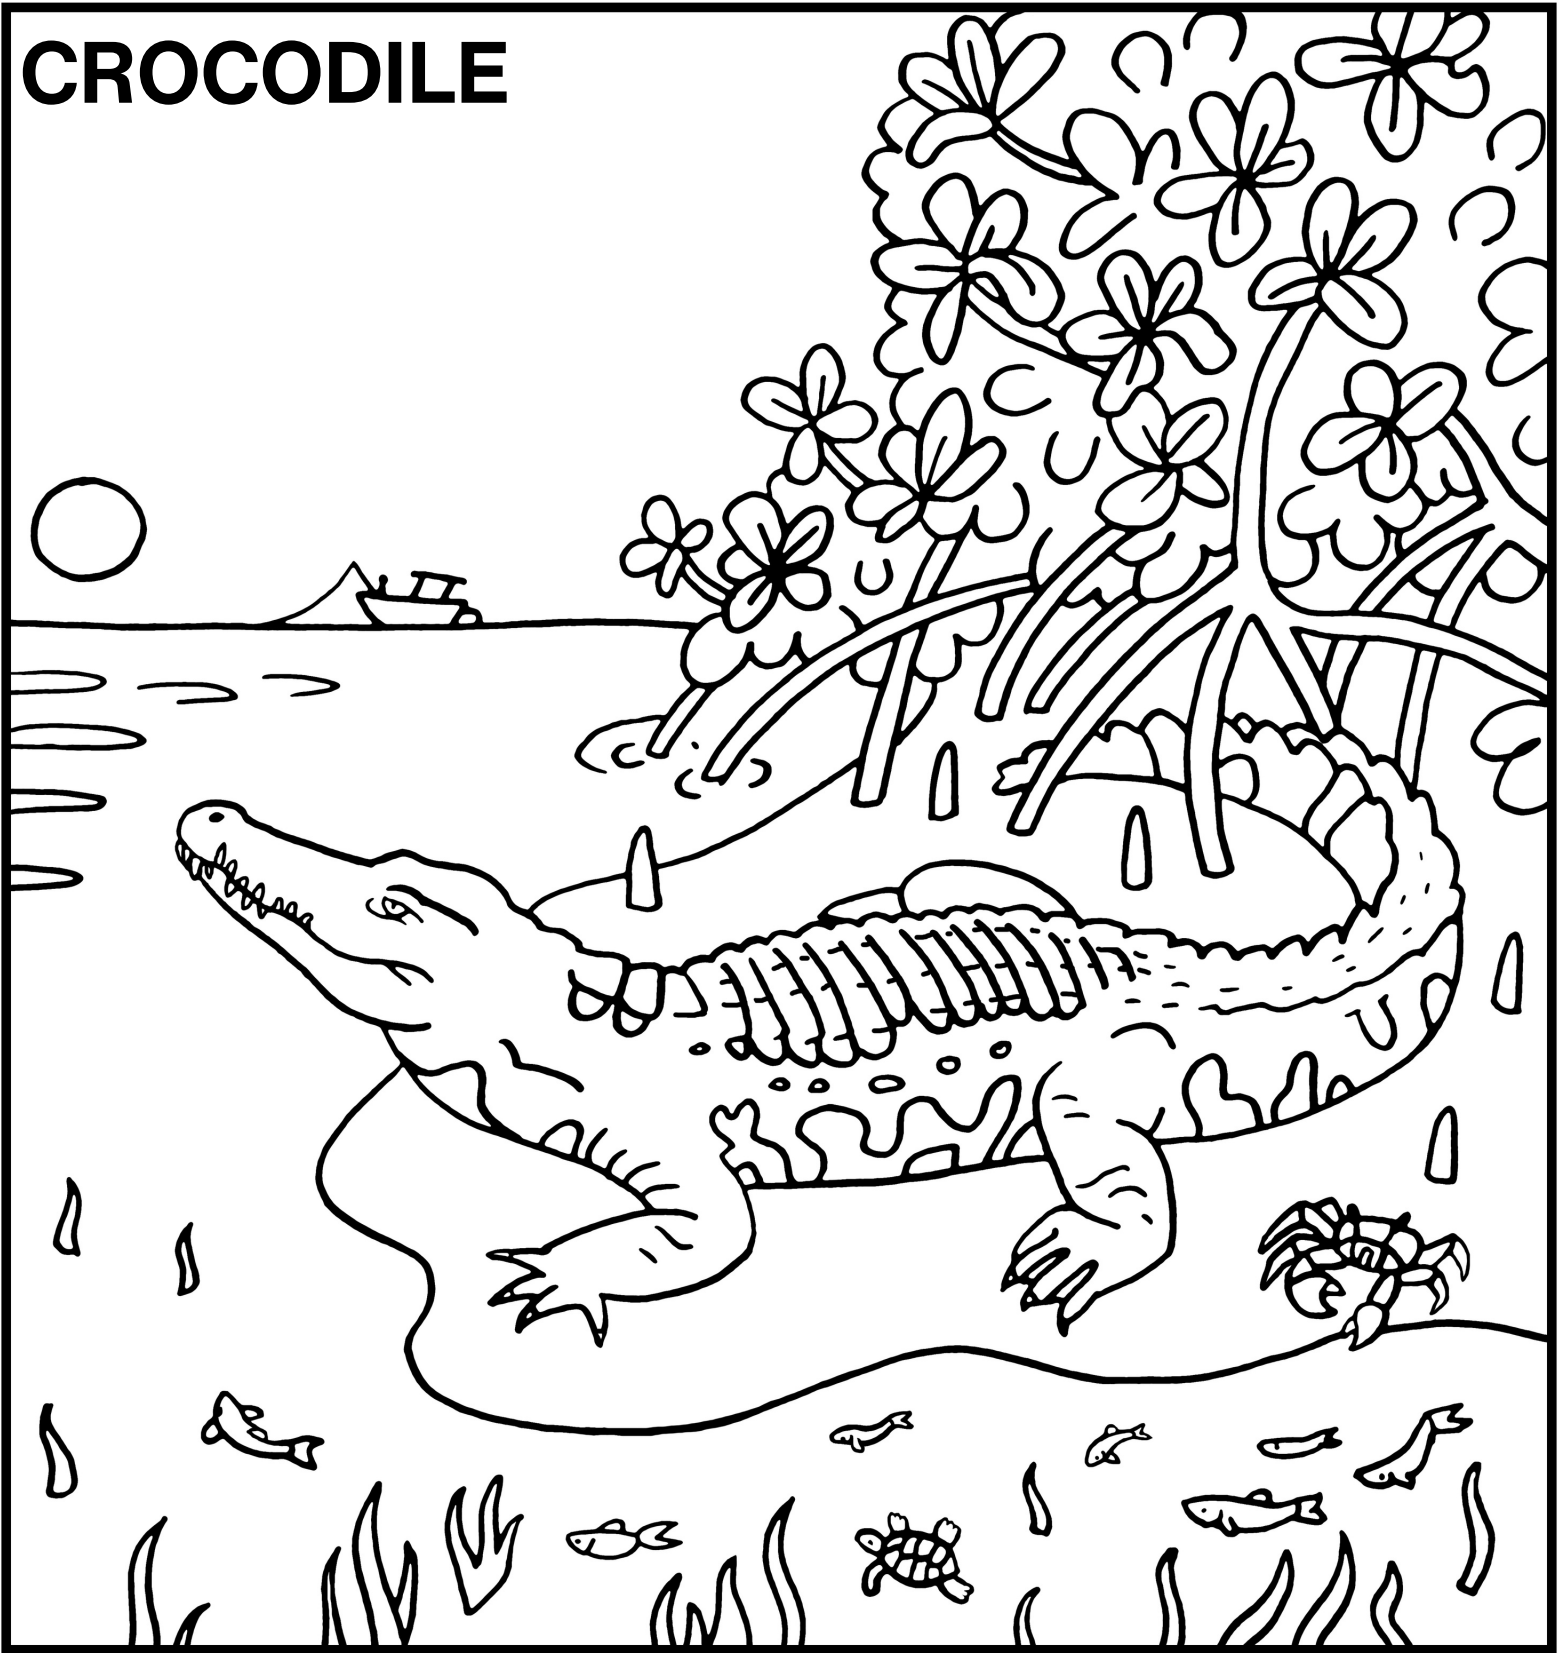

ANHINGA

I am an Anhinga. I am an excellent swimmer. I like to dive underwater to find fish. My feathers are black and white. My beak is yellow.

I can be found living in

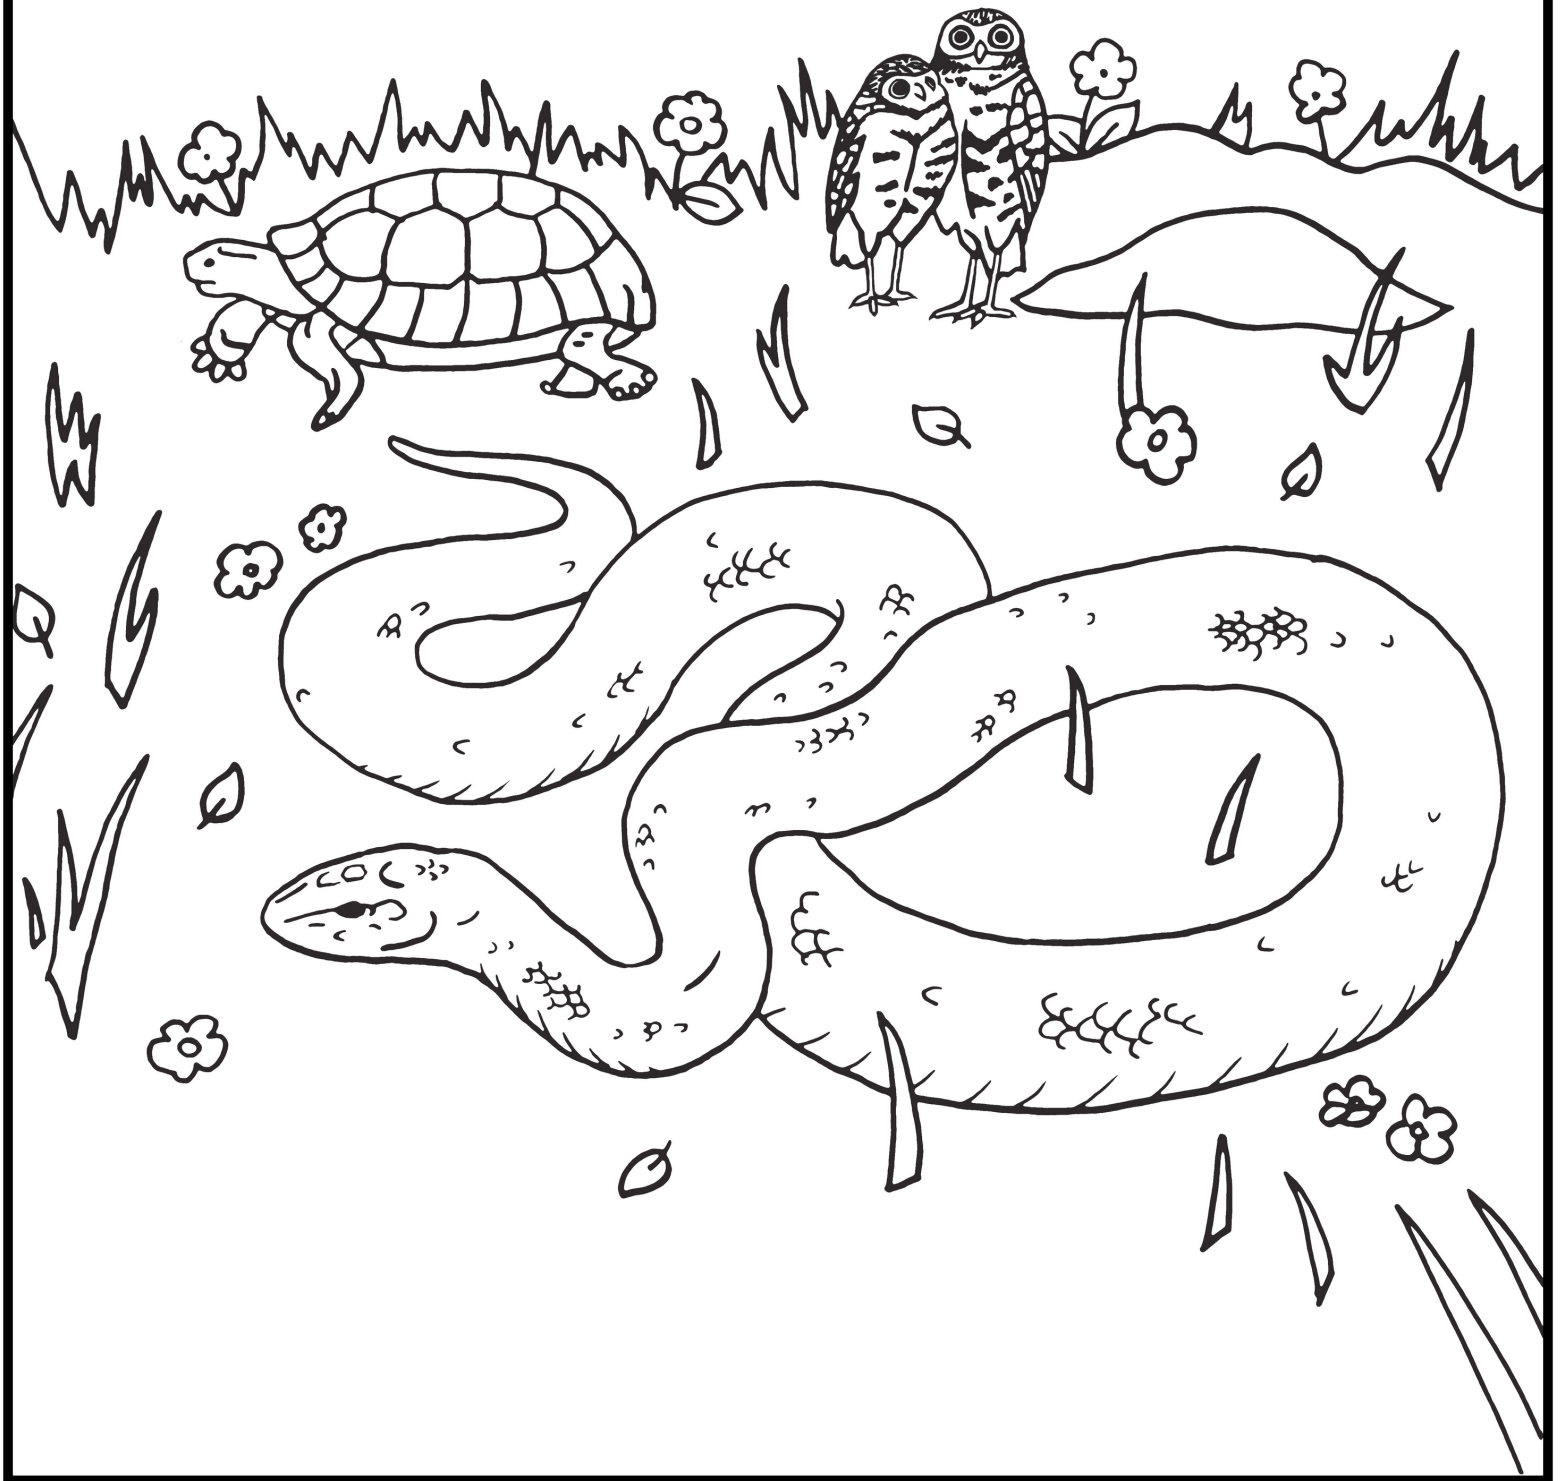

CROCODILE

I am a crocodile. My snout is long and pointy and shaped like the letter V. My color is light gray and green.

I can be found living in

EASTERN INDIGO SNAKE

I am an Eastern indigo snake. I am a very long snake. I am not poisonous. My color is mostly black. I have some red on my chin.

I can be found living in

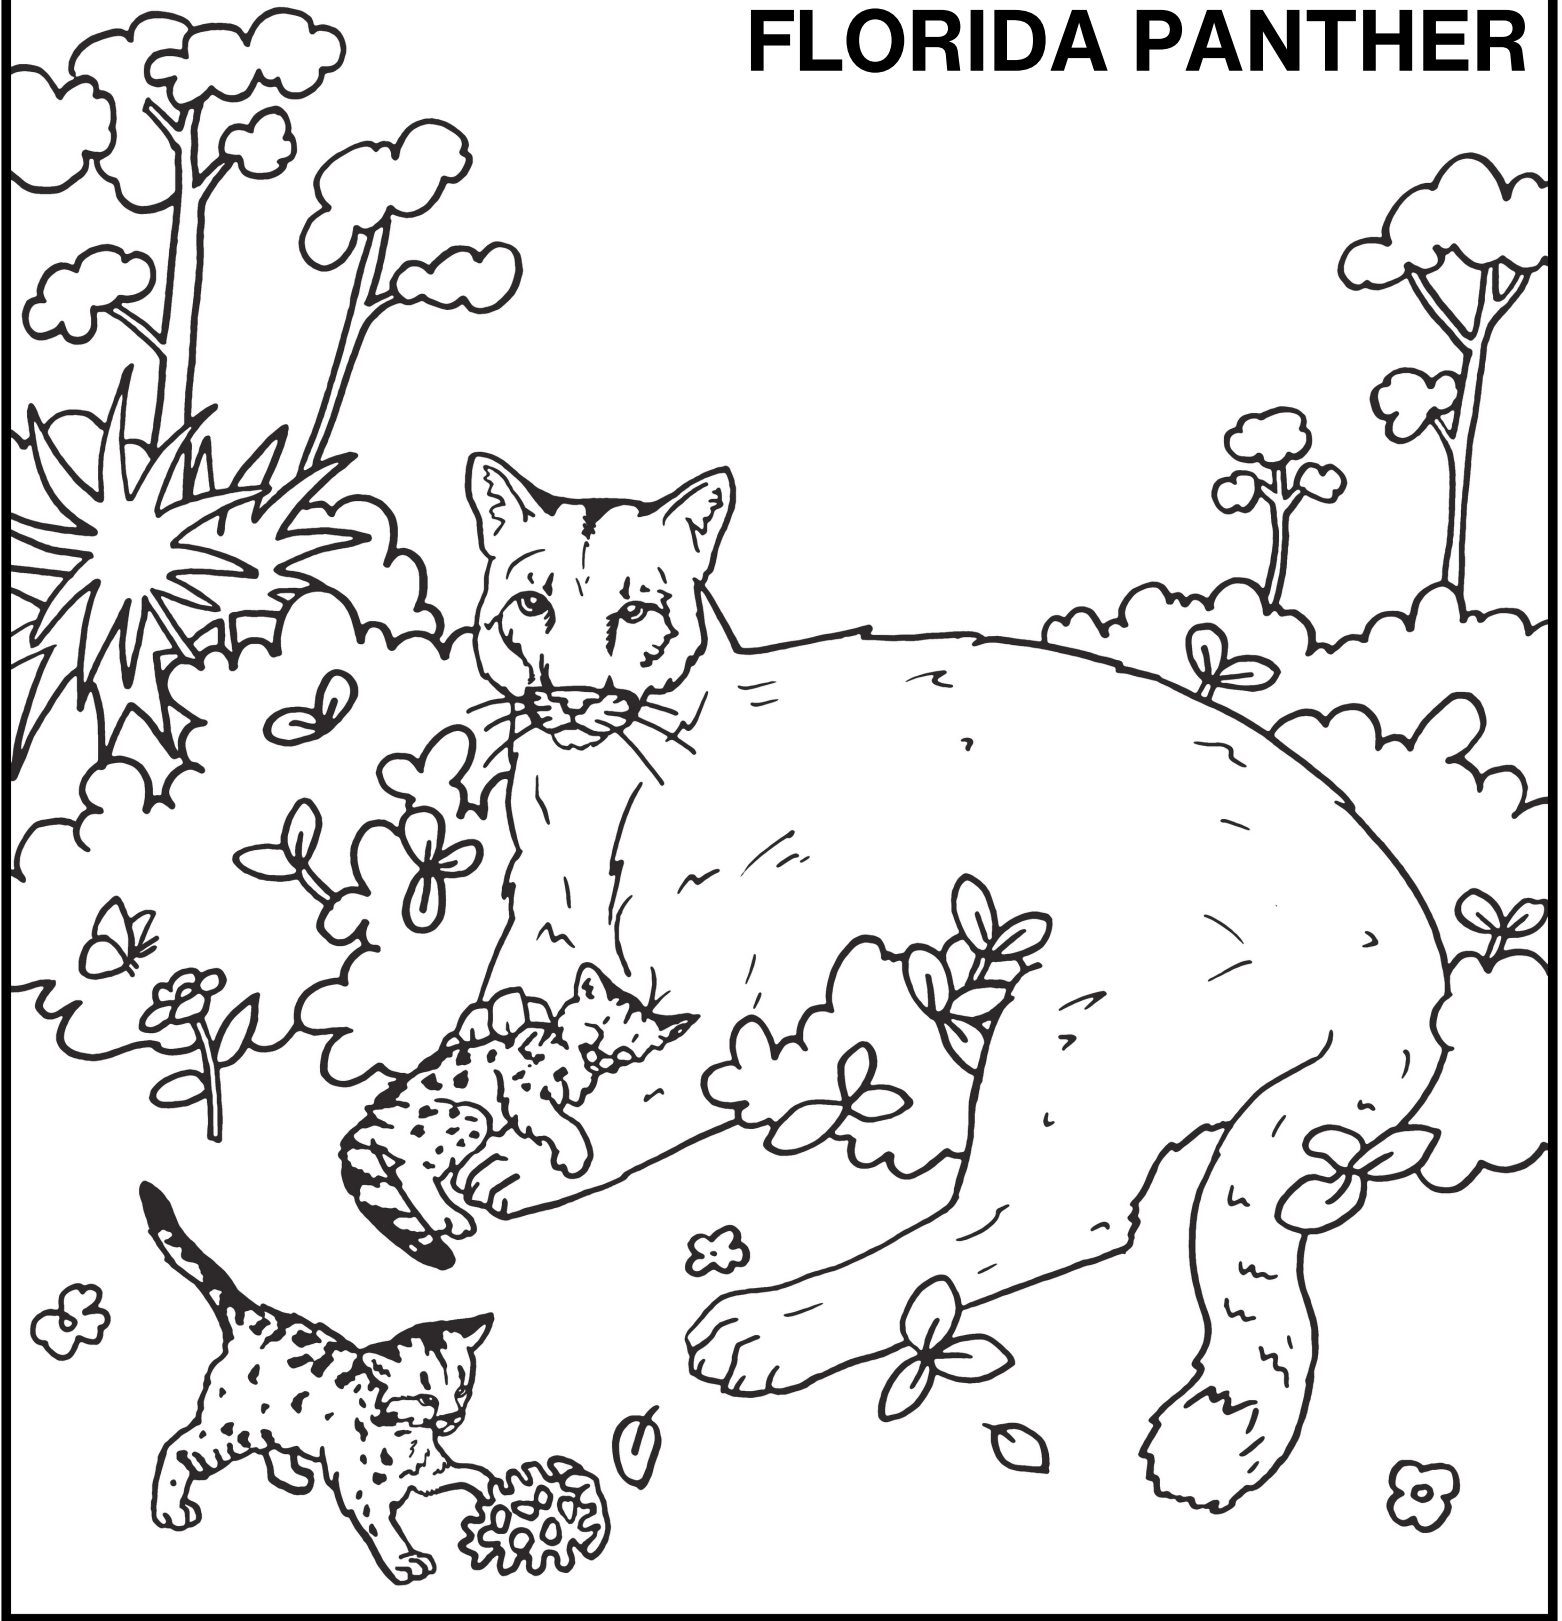

FLORIDA GAR

I am a Florida gar fish. I have a long snout with sharp teeth. My color is greenish brown with a white belly.

I can be found living in

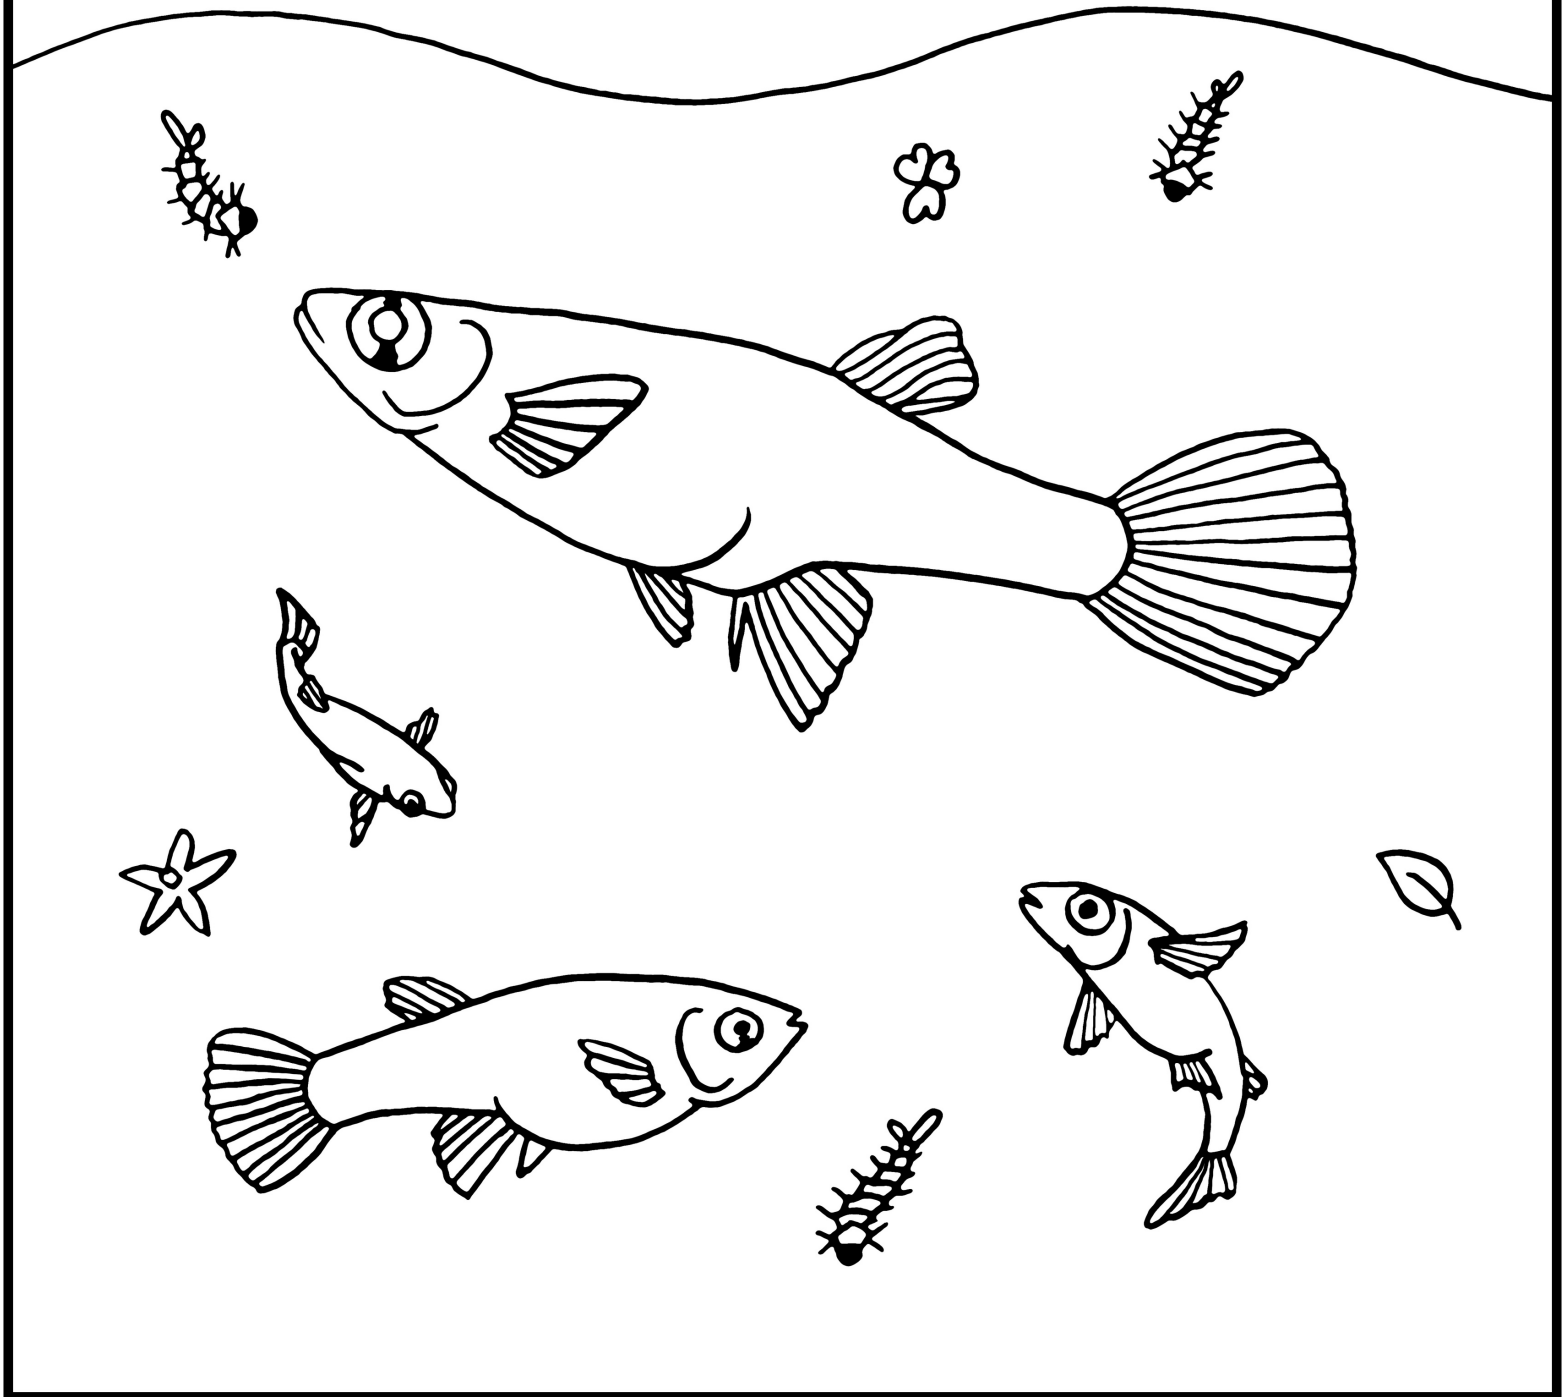

FLORIDA PANTHER

I am a Florida panther. I am very shy. Few people ever see me.
I have a long tail. I am tan with black ears.

I can be found living in

GAMBUSIA

I am a gambusia. I am a small fish. Some people call me a "mosquito fish". I like to eat mosquito larvae. My color is silver.

I can be found living in

GREAT BLUE HERON

I am a Great Blue Heron. I am very tall. See my long legs. I like to wade in the water. My feathers are grayish-blue.

I can be found living in

GREAT EGRET

I am a Great Egret. I have long legs for wading in the water. My feathers are white. My legs are black and I have a yellow beak.

I can be found living in

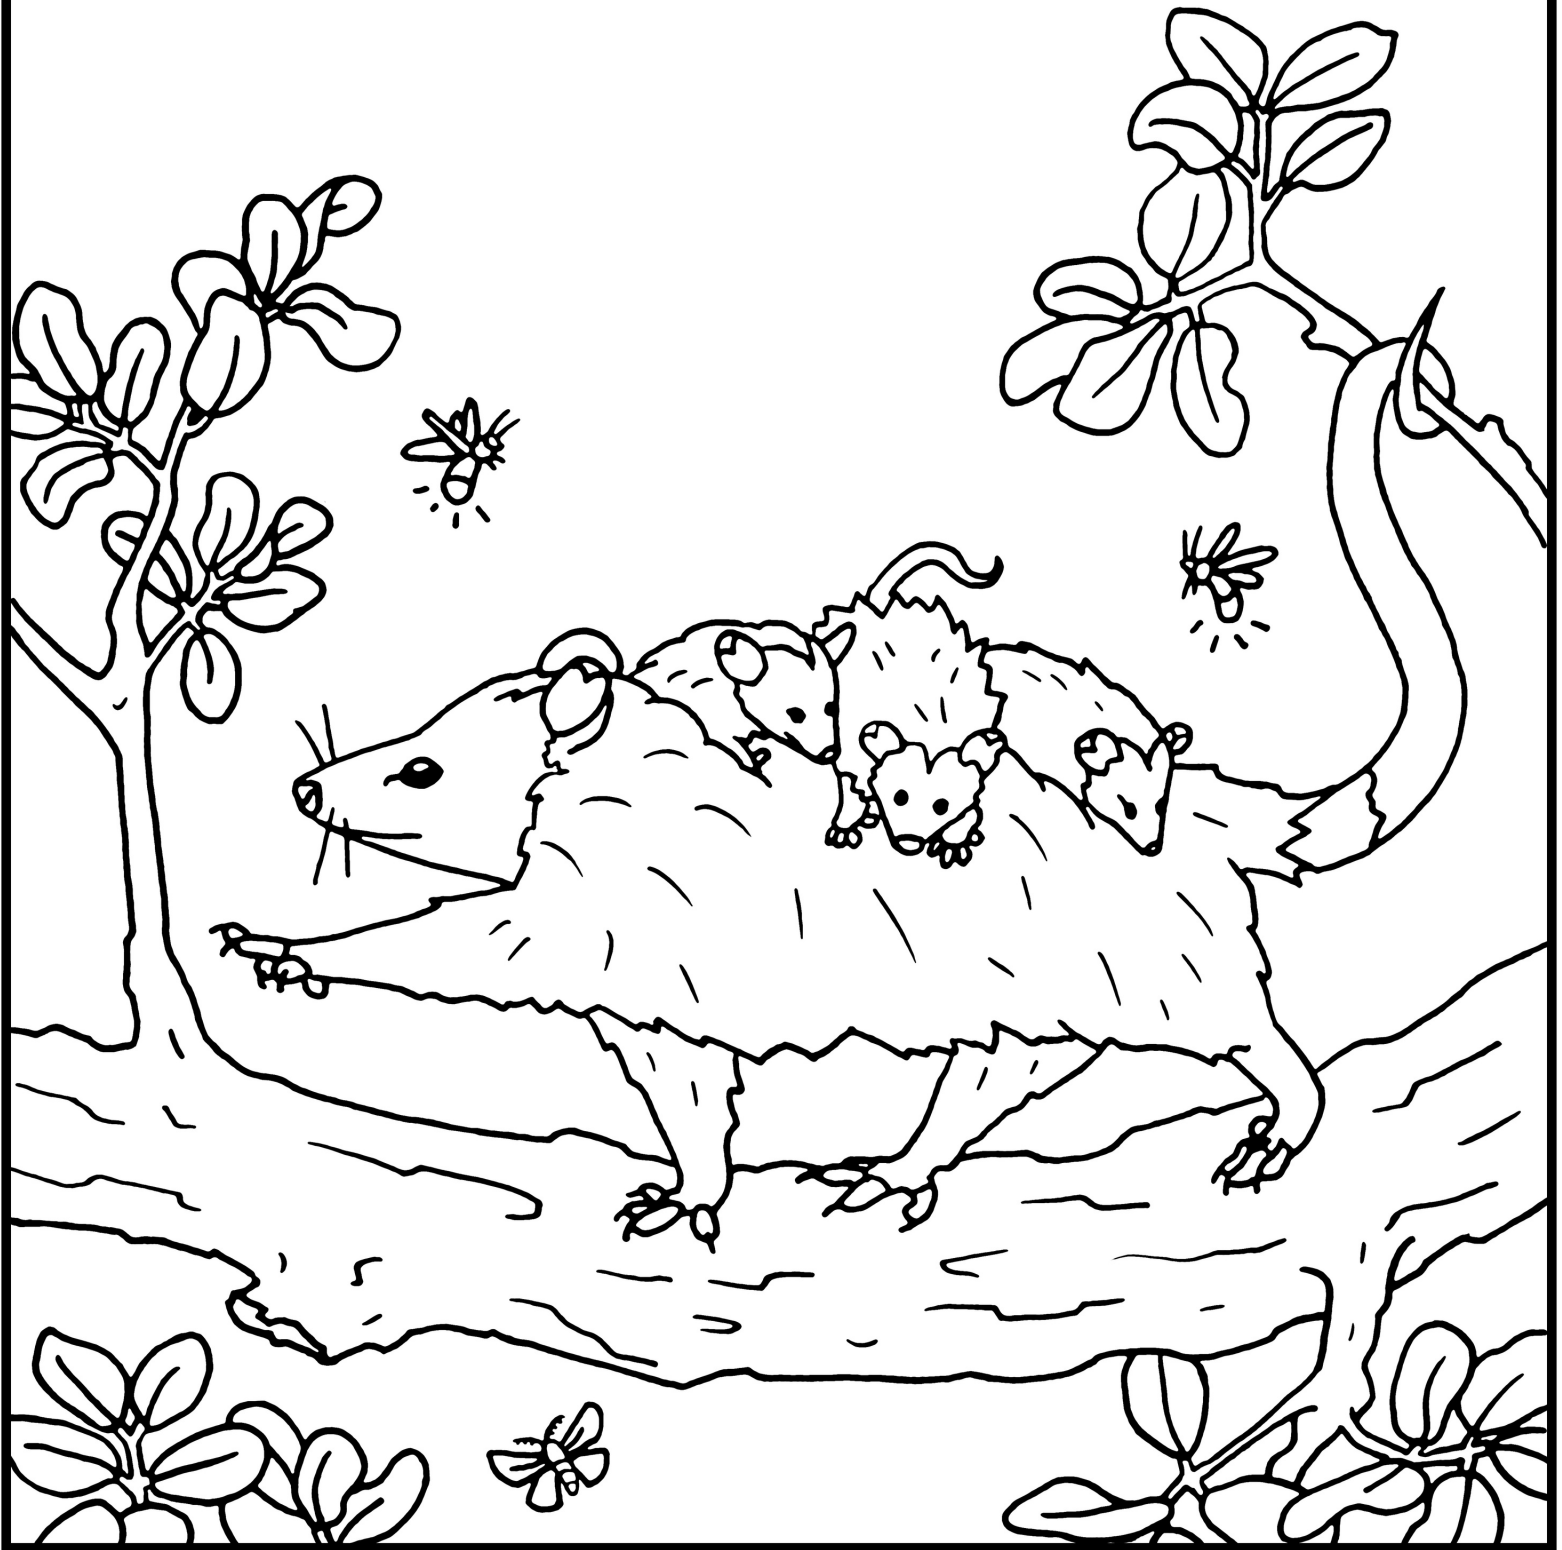

GULF FRITILLARY BUTTERFLY

I am a Gulf fritillary butterfly. I am a very colorful butterfly. I have orange wings with black markings.

I can be found living in

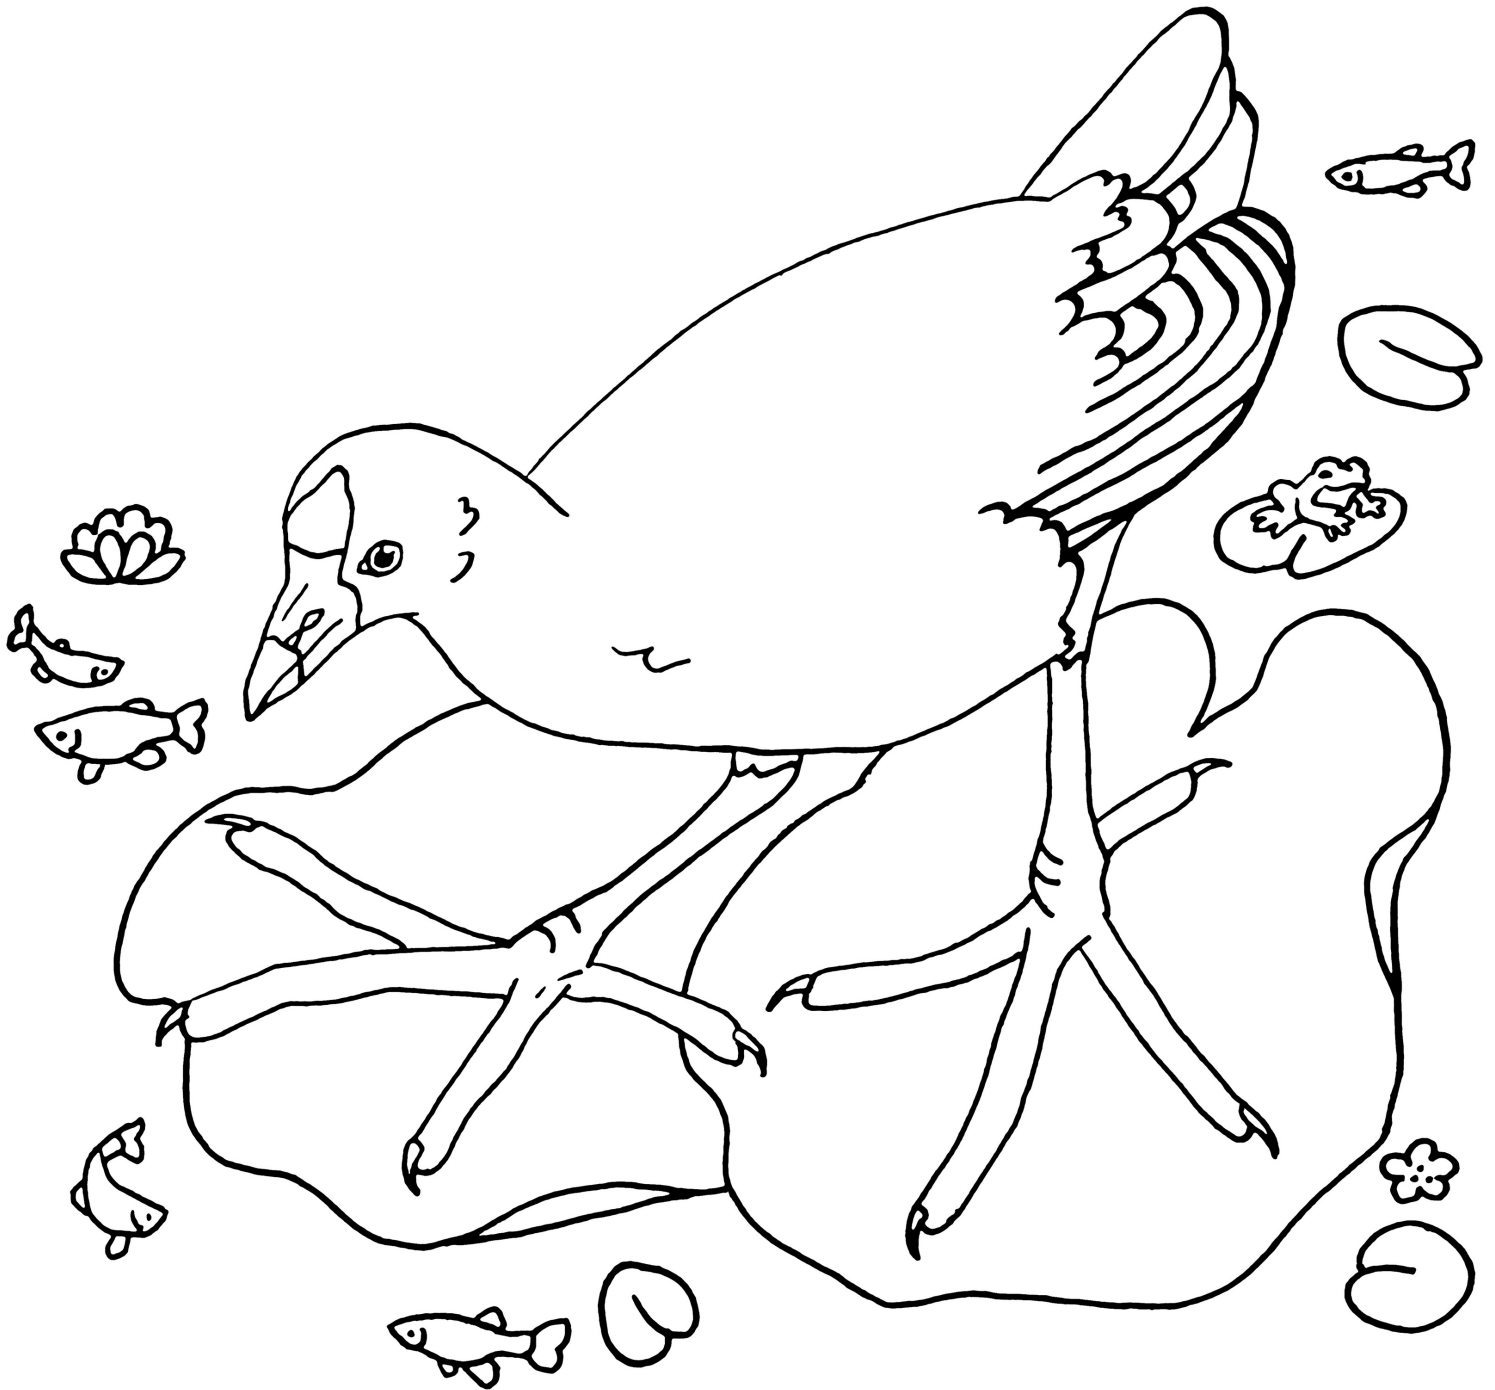

OPOSSUM

I am an opossum. I carry my babies on my back. I am gray with a pink tail and black ears.

I can be found living in

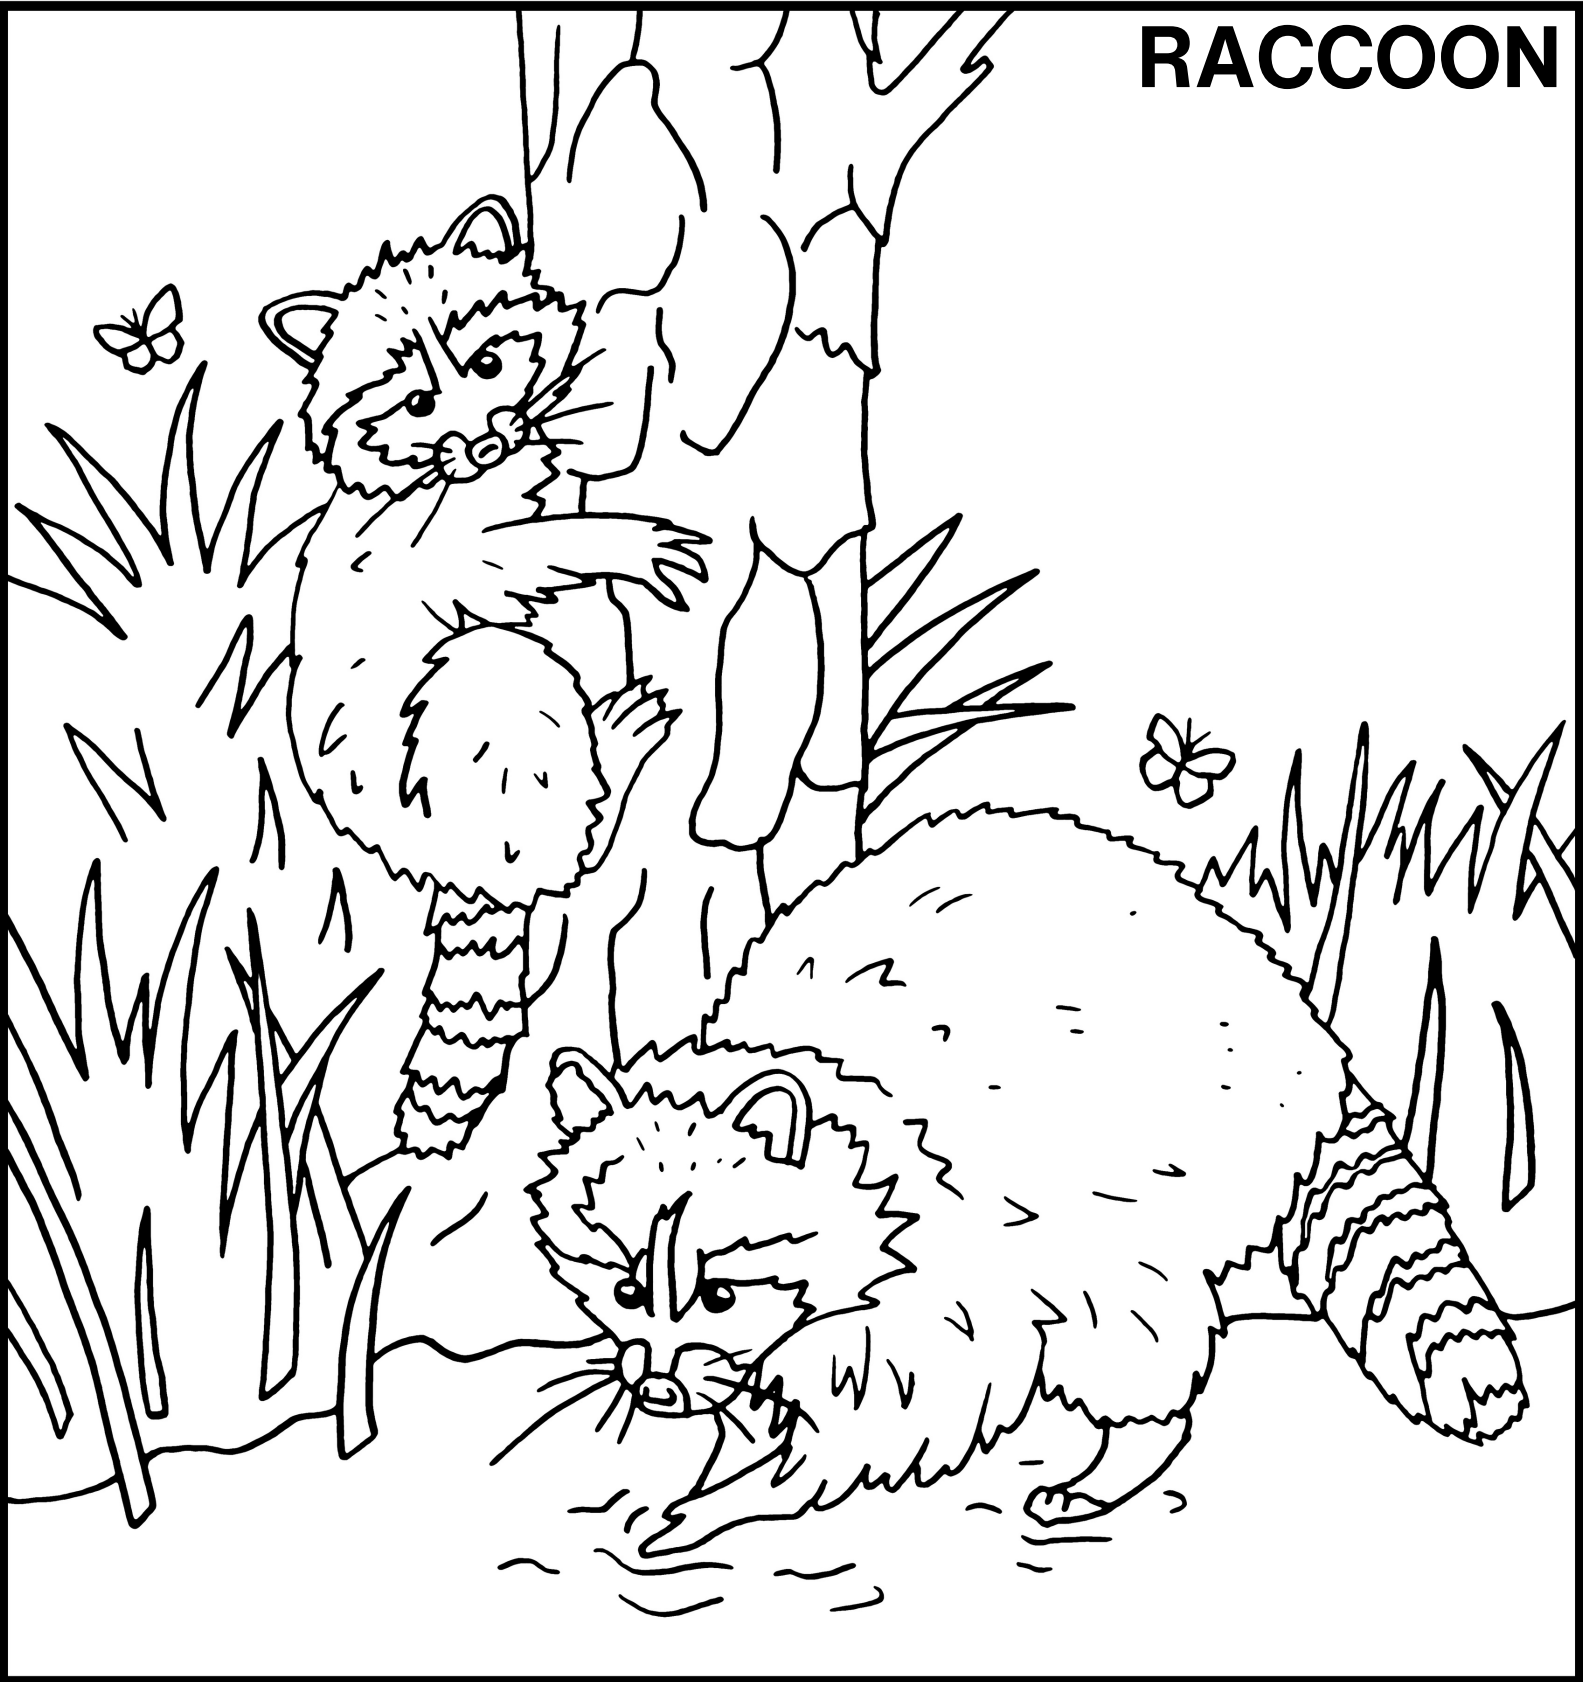

PURPLE GALLINULE

I am a Purple Gallinule. I can walk on top of plants floating in the water. My feathers are purple with green wings and back. My legs are yellow. My beak is red with a yellow tip.

I can be found living in

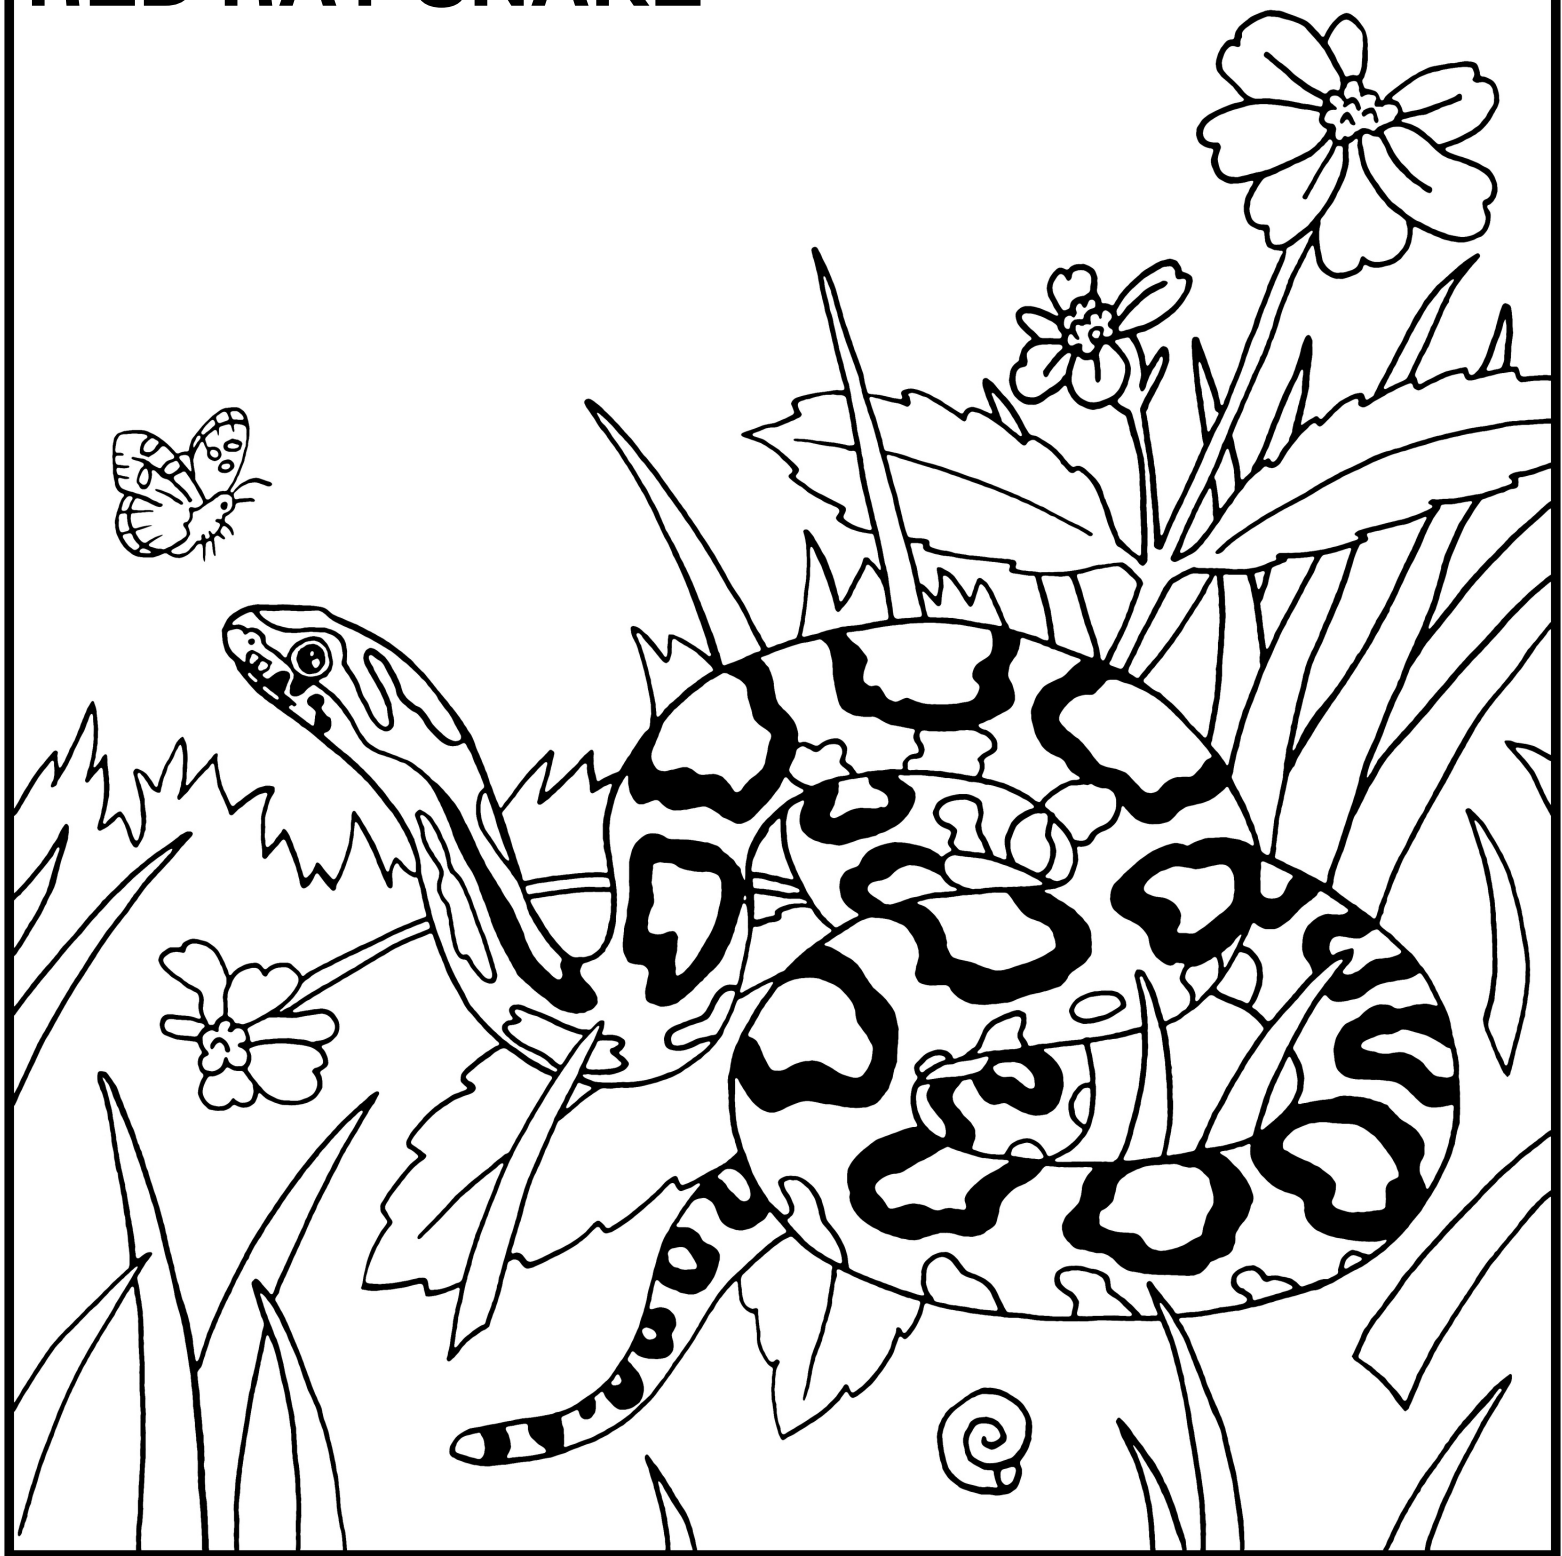

RACCOON

I am a raccoon. I am gray. I have a black mask on my face and a black and white ringed tail.

I can be found living in

RED RAT SNAKE

I am a red rat snake. I am not poisonous. I am a good tree climber.
My body has bright red spots bordered with black.

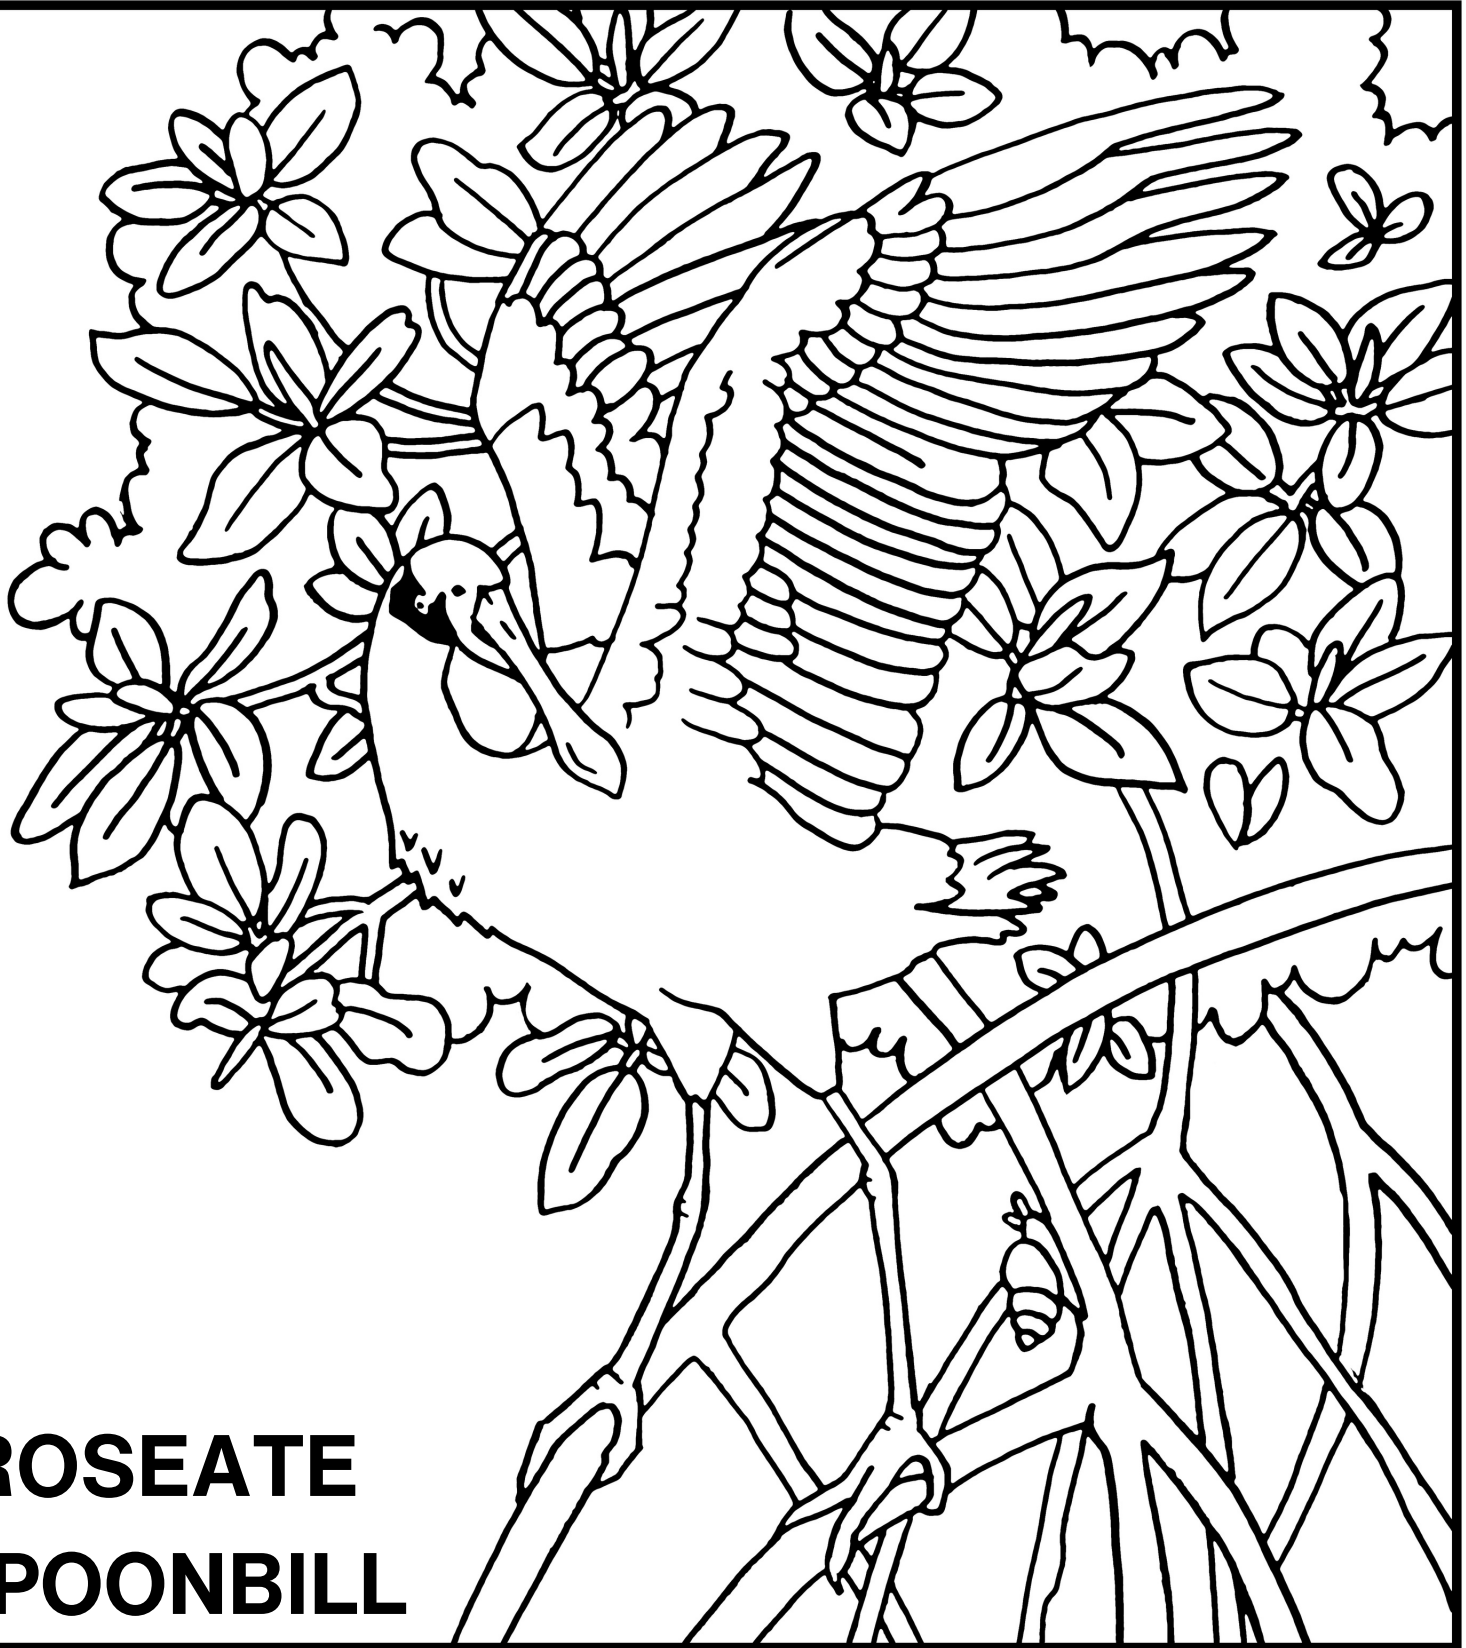

I can be found living in

RIVER OTTER

I am a river otter. I can live on land or water. I am a very good swimmer. I like to eat fish. My fur is light or dark brown.

I can be found living in

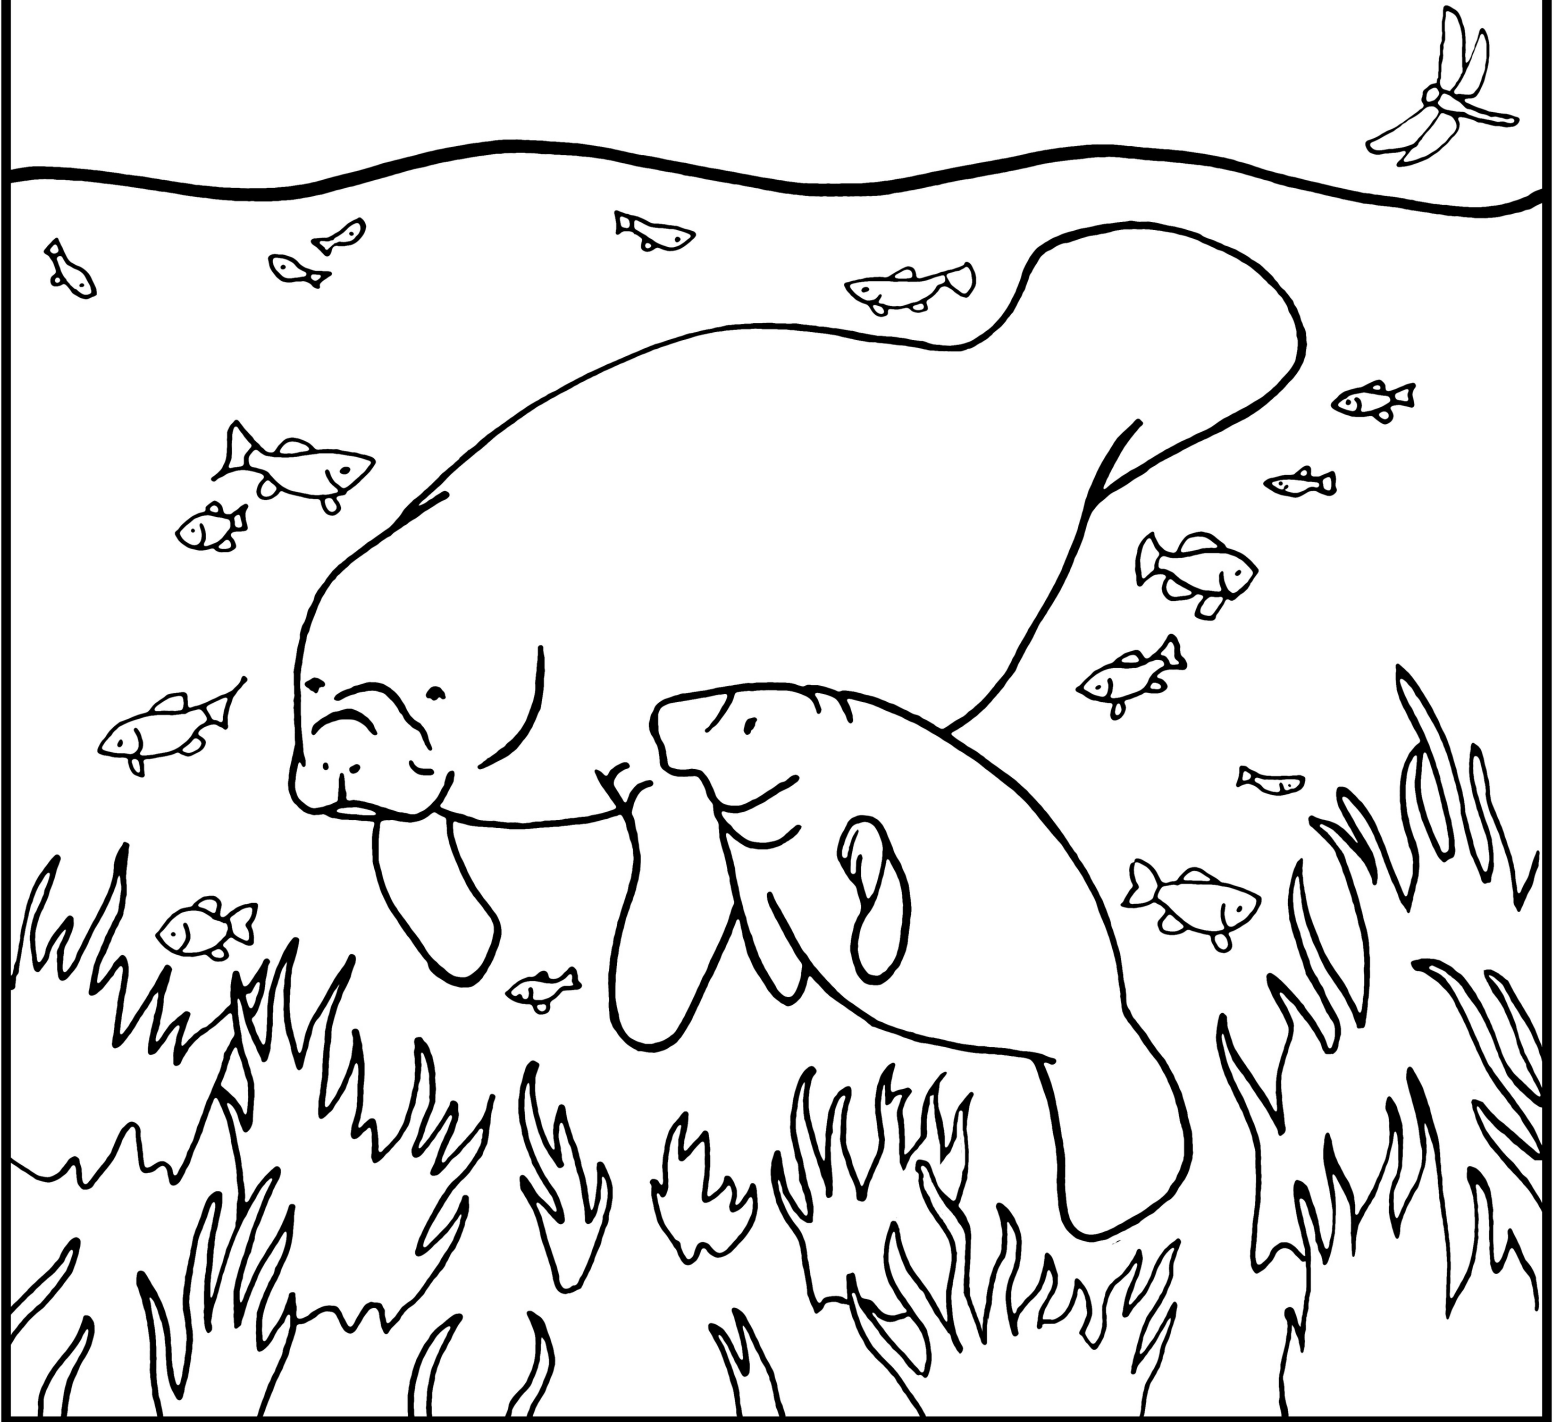

ROSEATE SPOONBILL

I am a Roseate Spoonbill. My beak has a spoon shape. I wade in the water and sweep my beak to catch food. My feathers are bright pink and white. My beak and head are grey.

I can be found living in

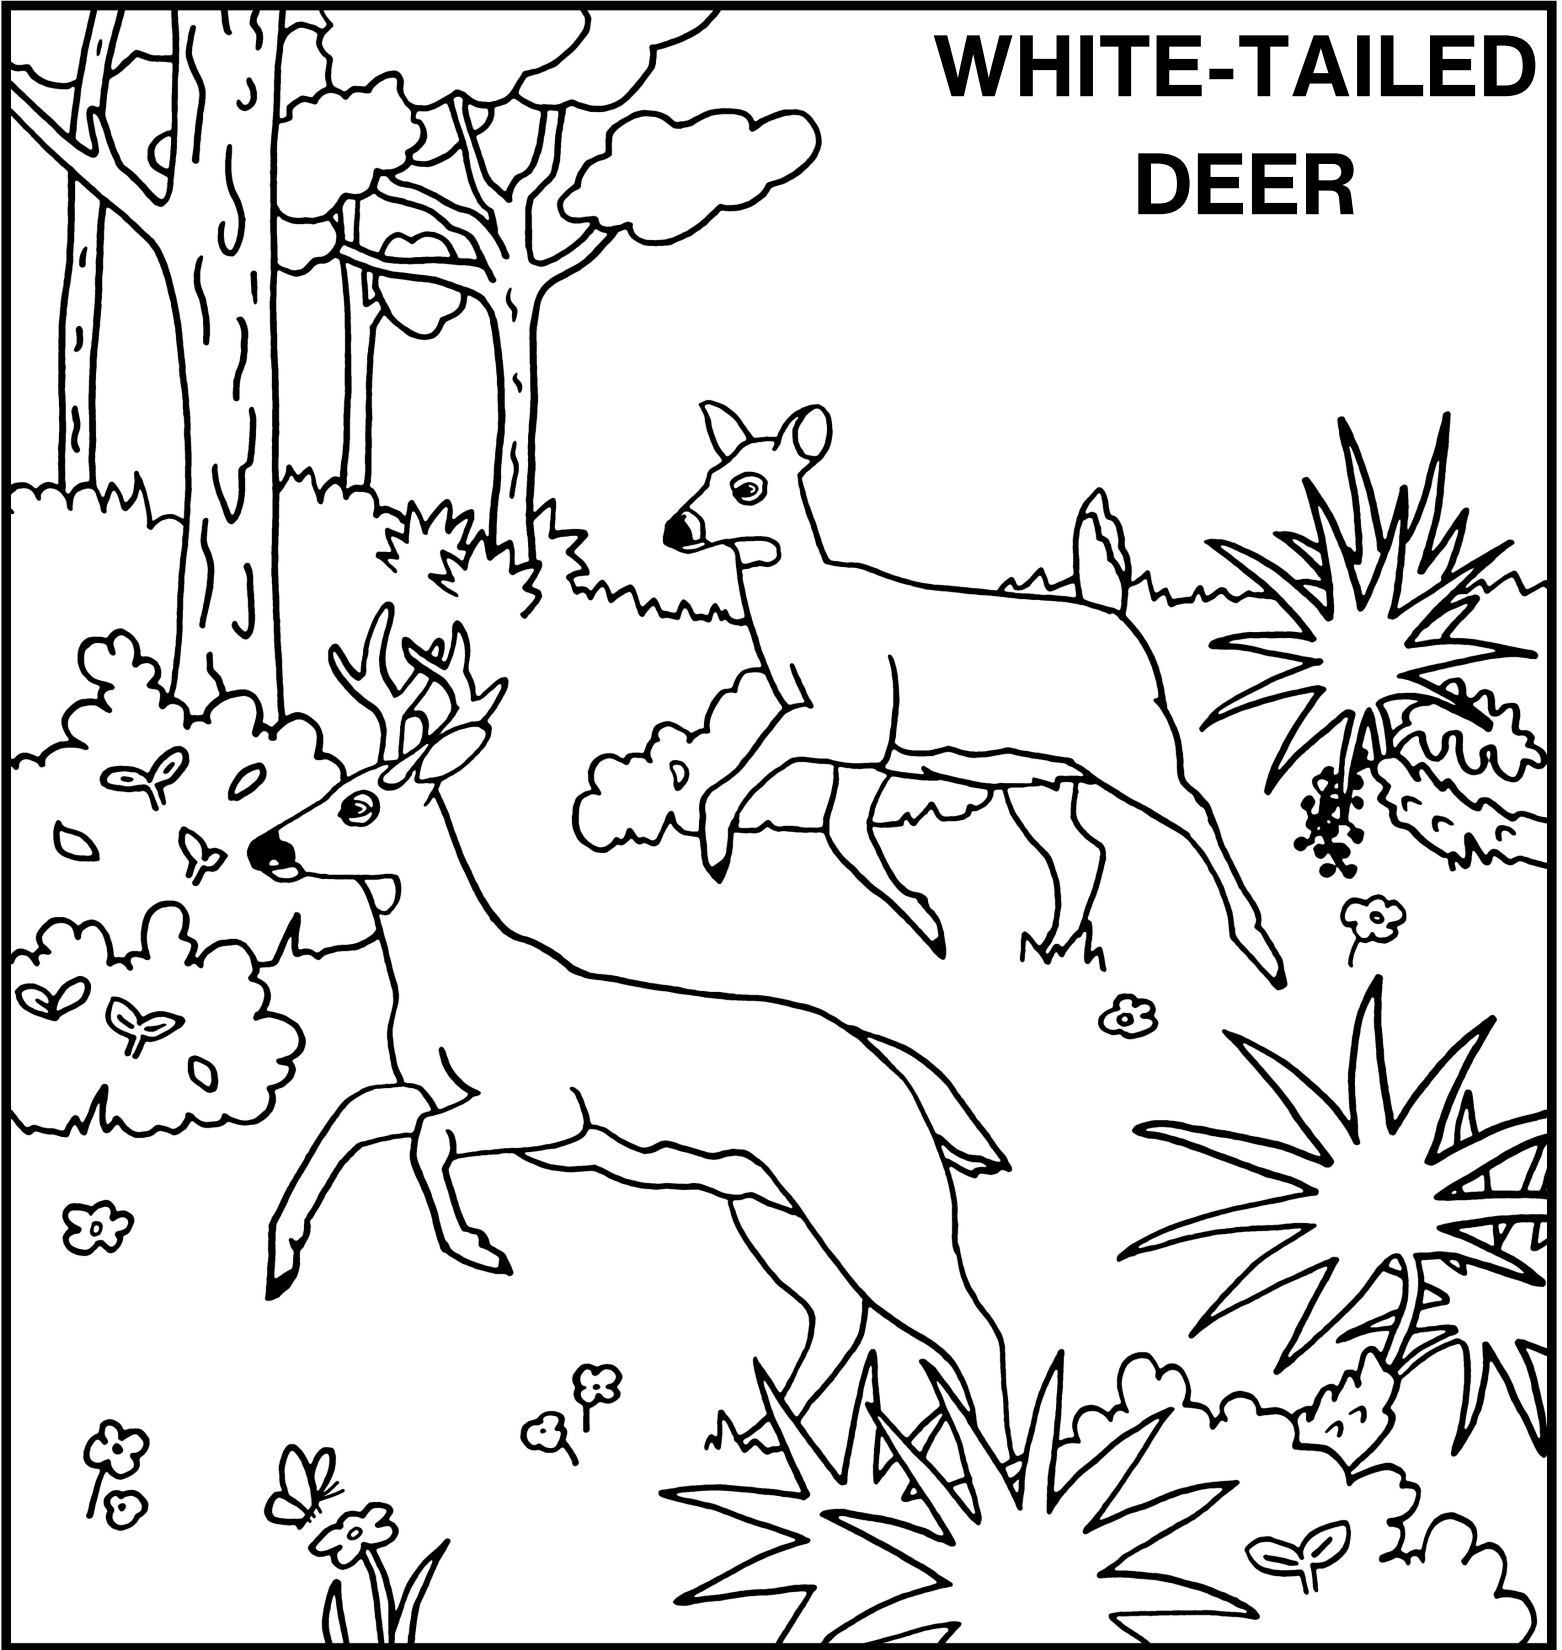

WEST INDIAN MANATEE

I am a West Indian manatee. I spend most of my time slowly swimming underwater. I do have to come up for air. I like to eat seagrass. My body is grey.

I can be found living in

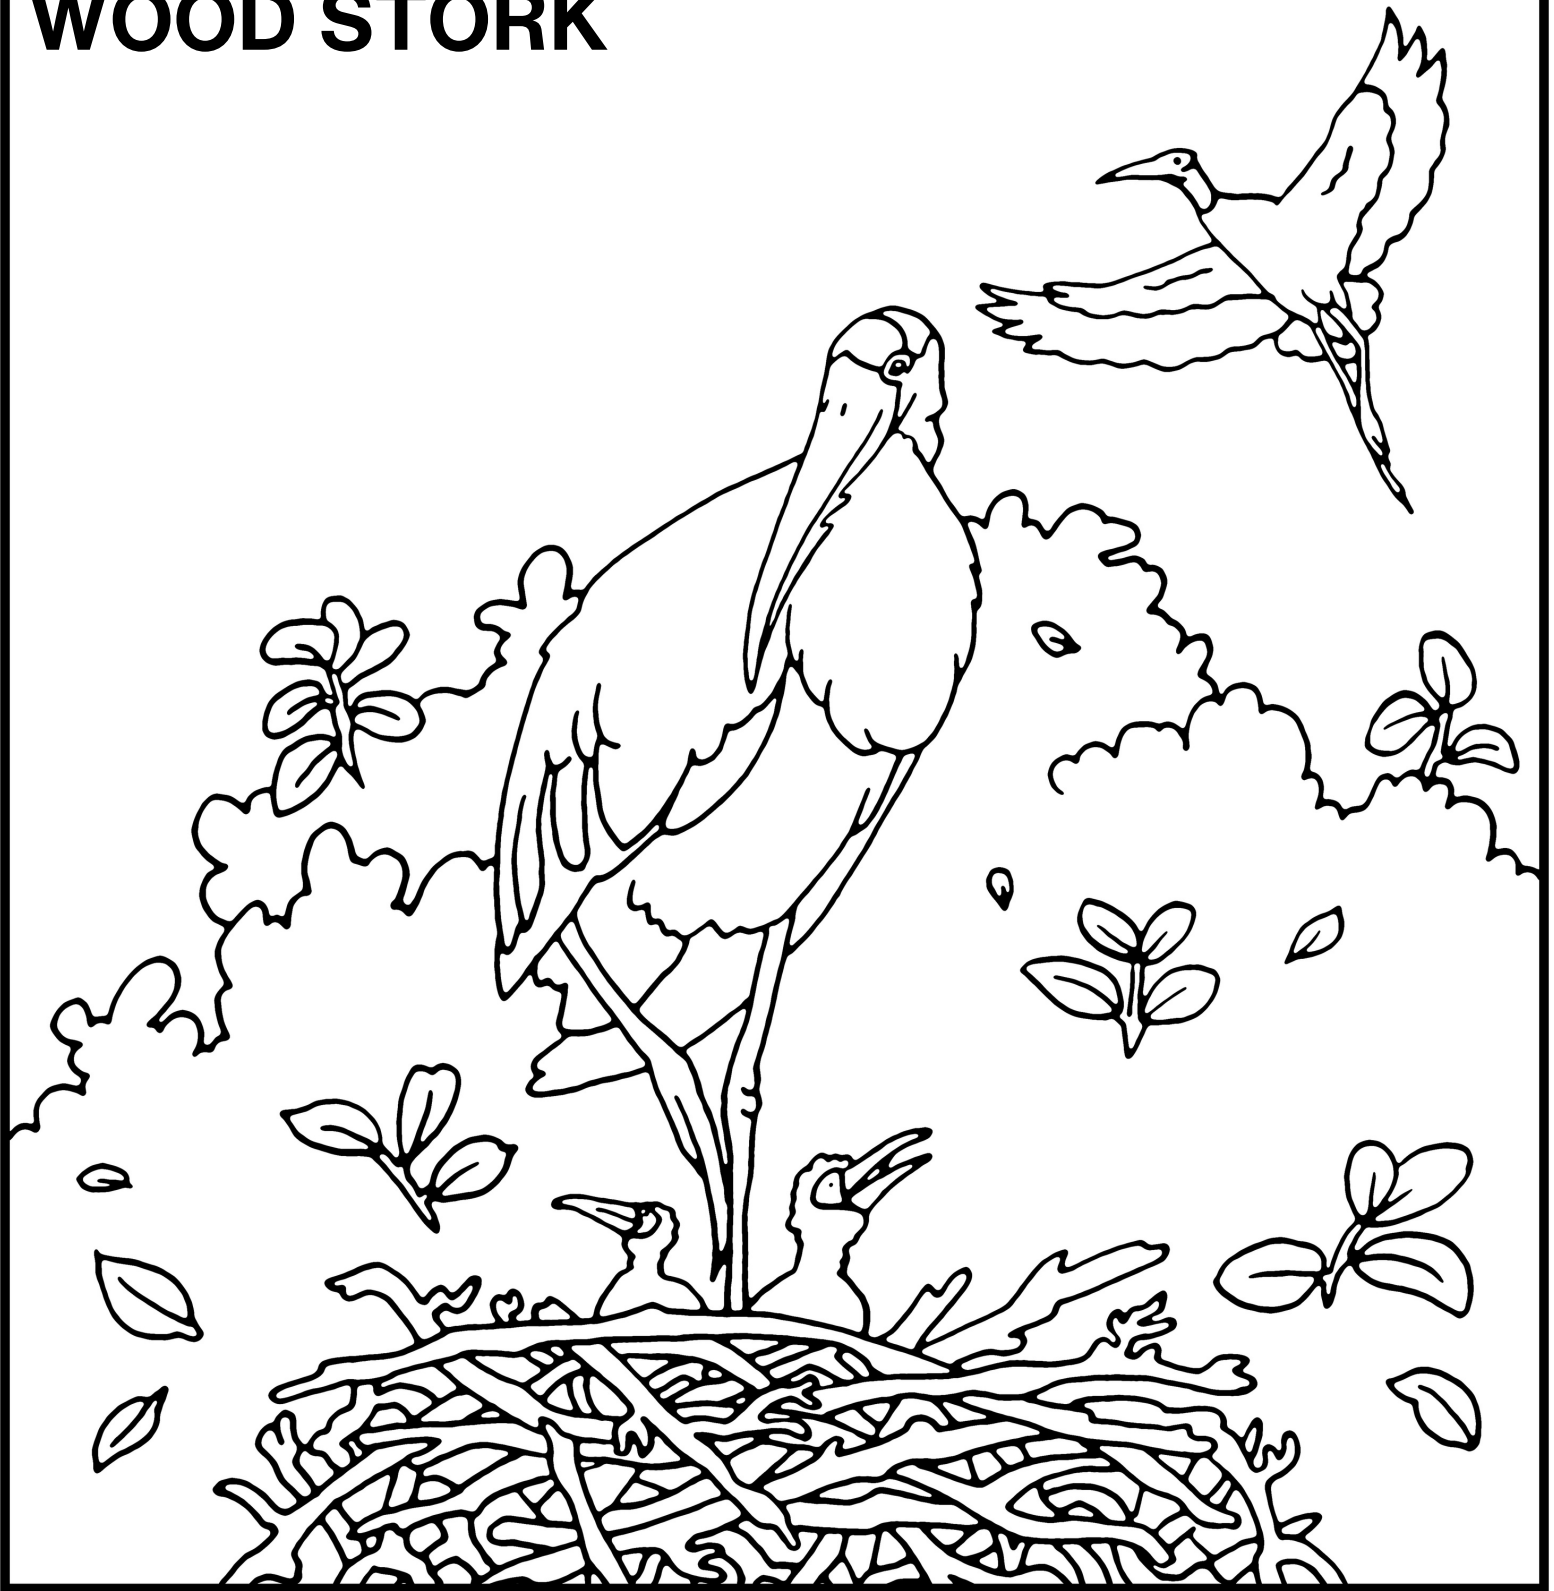

WHITE-TAILED DEER

I am a white-tailed deer. I live on land. I eat leaves and grass. My body is a light brown color. I have a white neck, belly, and tail.

I can be found living in

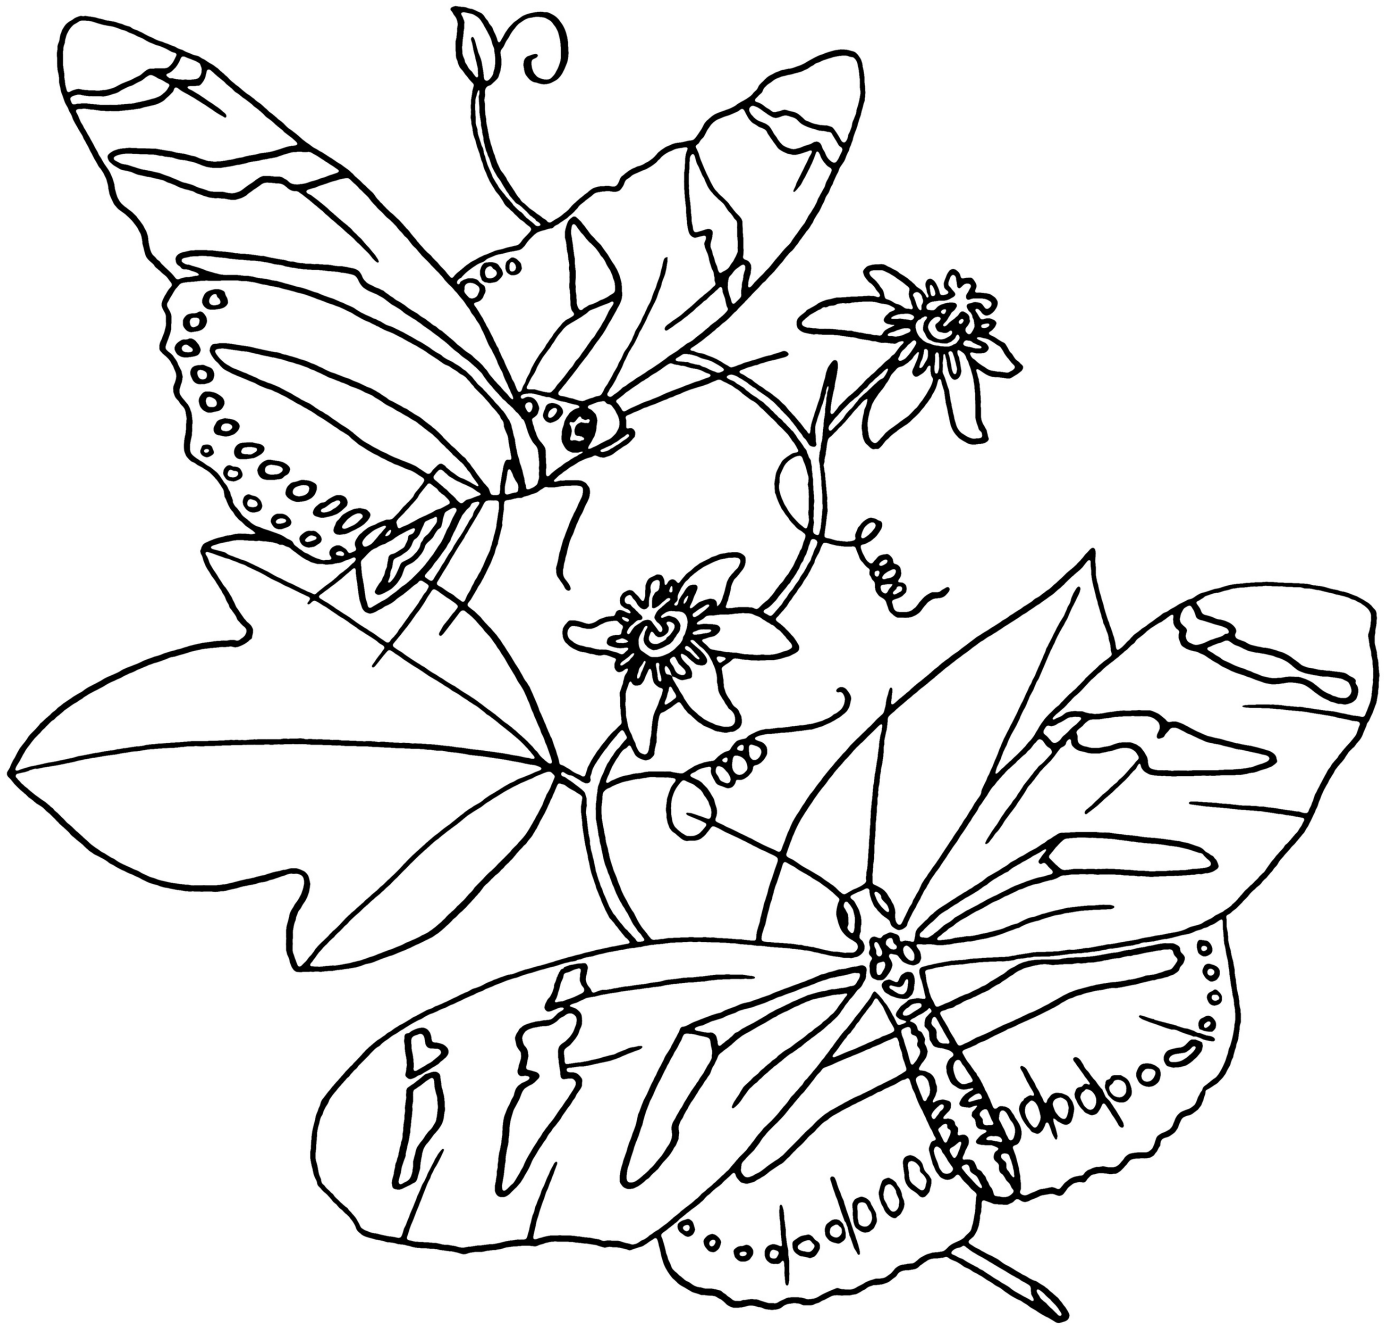

WOOD STORK

I am a Wood Stork. I am a large bird. I like to wade in the water with my long legs. My feathers are white with half black wings. My head, neck, beak, and legs are gray.

I can be found living in

ZEBRA LONGWING BUTTERFLY

I am a zebra longwing butterfly. I fly from flower to flower to eat nectar and pollen. I have black wings with white and yellow stripes.

I can be found living in